Editorial

Life at Sainik School Punglwa often moves quickly with many changes witnessed at almost every turn attaining the philosophy of education and meeting the needs of the individual cadet. Everyone plays a role in the evolution of the school.

I am delighted to introduce the Xth edition of the school magazine 'Vibrant Strings' which is a chronicle of school's achievements. It aims to bring out the innate literary and artistic talents in the cadets by showcasing their numerous creative abilities. It also unleashes a wide spectrum of innovative skills of all writers.

It is heartening to see young writers voicing their feelings and experiences through stories, poems, jokes and art works. The variety and creativity of the articles and events portrayed in the pages of this journal represent the true literary talents of cadets. The book will not be just a read but also reflects the success and achievements of the school in its pursuit that make the years in school interesting and worth remembering.

Publication of a journal is a taxing task as it requires editing, compilation and even designing of the same. I laud the dedication and relentless efforts of the editorial team and the valuable contributions of those who stood by us in the making of this journal fruitful. I also express my appreciation to the Principal for the guidance and supervision of the entire task of publishing this journal.

Wishing you all a pleasure reading.

With warm regards.

MESSAGE

I am happy to know that Sainik School Punglwa is bringing out the Xth issue of its Annual Magazine 'VIBRANT STRINGS'. I am always delighted, inspired and enlightened the moment I go through the 'VIBRANT STRINGS' and sharing the joy of immense achievements, unceasing growth and unwavering progress of the institution in different areas.

The School Magazine is a window to the activities of the School and I am sure the magazine will provide an opportunity to the students to showcase their literary talents, share their views and develop their self confidence and enhance their interest in writing and reading. It also brightens their intellectual and creative abilities and develops taste for Art and Literature.

The good and respected image and glory of what Sainik School is today, is all due to the tireless effort of the faculty under the guidance of able Armed Officers who are rendering their very best leaving aside all their needs and personal comfort in shaping and nurturing the young minds of today's generation. I am sure they would look back at their achievements without any regrets.

Sainik School, the pride of Nagaland in truth and spirit, is one of the best schools with a healthy ambience. It plays a cascading role in shaping the personality and career of cadets. There is no iota of doubt that the school promotes sustained quality education to make cadets efficient and competent.

I am confident and pray that the 'VIBRANT STRINGS' as the name suggests will continue to shine – to reflect the ultimate progressive spirit to forgo ahead accompanied with untiring efforts and zeal of the staff and students in leading the institution to a higher path of progress.

Let us be the torch bearers of the 'New India' of our respected Prime Minister Modiji's dream. We the empowered students, will translate the dream into reality.

I convey my best wishes to the staff and boys in their quest for the betterment of the school and also wish the magazine success.

MESSAGE

1. I am pleased to learn that Sainik School Punglwa is publishing its Annual Magazine, 'Vibrant Strings', which will serve as a platform for portraying the institution as a whole, and for showcasing the cadets' innovative and constructive ideas.
2. Sainik School Punglwa is the first and only sainik school in Nagaland, and it carries the hopes and aspirations of the people of Nagaland. The school is different from other schools because it has different aims and objectives. I would, therefore, take this opportunity to urge the cadets and staff of this school to work hard, and be dedicated to the high goals and ideals of the school.
3. I am happy to know that a number of new infrastructural developments have been made recently for the benefits of the cadets, which will surely enrich and equip the students to successfully face challenges of this era. I exhort the cadets to fully take advantages of the better facilities being provided by the school, which are not available in many other schools in Nagaland.
4. My best wishes to the principal, the staff and the editorial team for a successful publication of 'Vibrant Strings'.

I am glad to learn that Sainik School Punglwa, Nagaland is bringing out the annual magazine, Vibrant Strings.

Sainik Schools which are run by Sainik School Society under the Ministry of Defence are some of the public schools in the country. Nagaland is privileged to have such premier institution established for the benefit of the young boys of the state.

Military leadership is one of the finest ways of life a young man can opt for. Sainik School Punglwa is the gateway to this leadership. The School moulds the young cadets with a first rate exposure to knowledge and application. Every aspect of education; intellectual, physical and emotional is given to the students enabling all round development. I urge upon the cadets to realise this opportunity and privilege they are given to fulfil their dreams.

The School contribution is admirable ever since its inception till date and I sincerely feel that with the same zeal and enthusiasm the School will continue to contribute to the people and the Nagas in general.

I extend my warm greetings to the Sainik School Punglwa, and the editorial team all the best for the effort underway to bring out annual Magazine a grand success. Truth, love and sincerity to service be with one and all always. God Bless.

I am glad to know that Sainik School Punglwa is bringing out its Xth annual magazine, 'Vibrant Strings' for the year 2016-17.

A School magazine vividly depicts the varied activities and programmes that have been organised for the holistic development of the students. It is also a platform for creative and constructive expression be it poetic, prosaic or fine art. The fact that SSPN received the Best Journal Award 2016 of all the journals of the Sainik Schools in India, proves the sincere effort put into the work.

I am pleased to know that for the past two consecutive years, science projects of Sainik School Punglwa made mark in the CBSE National Level Science Exhibition organized in Delhi after being selected in the regional level in Guwahati. The School also represented the Nagaland state in the PCRA National Level Quiz Competition 2016. It was also a proud moment for the School when three of its class XII Cadets passed the UPSC (NDA) written exam 2016 and one among the successfully cleared the SSB.

The School has also done well in sports as having gained East Zone Championship trophies in Basketball, Hockey and Cultural Competitions. The School Basketball team brought laurels by securing Bronze at All India Sainik Schools Inter Zonal Sports Championship 2016. I am optimistic that the School annual magazine will be a pleasure to the eyes and the hearts of the readers.

My best wishes to the editorial team in their endeavour to bring out "Vibrant Strings" 2017.

Jai Hindi!

It is indeed an honour to pen down the message for the annual magazine 'Vibrant Strings' 2017 of Sainik School, Punglwa. It gratifies me immensely to know that the school is progressing in all its endeavours towards the overall development and personality of the cadets. The magazine is a platform where cadets express their creative thoughts and ideas which develop in them in originality. It also paves a way to bring out quality writings and creative skills of the cadets.

I am pleased to assert that this school is one where young minds are moulded and nurtured so as to prepare themselves to counter tough challenges that await them in the life of defence forces. The school has contributed substantially to the process of development by providing quality education and thereby enabling the cadets to become globally competent.

I convey my heartfelt compliments to the Principal and staff for a big success in all their ventures. I also applaud the coordination and efforts of the team to bring out this issue. I wish them all success.

MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to learn that Sainik School Punglwa is coming up shortly with its fabulous issue of its Annual magazine "VIBRANT STRINGS".

I am happy to see that, Sainik School Punglwa being the long felt dreams of the people of Nagaland is well established now, and as a close associate with the school it's an immense pride for me sharing my happiness with you all. In spite of many unavoidable hurdles and obstacles, the school is moving towards to a higher pedestal of growth and success with the unflinching support from the Government of Nagaland and the people of the state in general.

I strongly believe and continue to rely on the fact that Sainik School Punglwa will earnestly march towards the stated defined goal and purpose with enthusiasm collectively.

I extend my sincere and best wishes to the staff and cadets in their pursuit for excellence and sustained development. I also wish the "VIBRANT STRINGS" a grand success.

May God bless you all.

Jai Hind!
